NAVEEN BEASLEY

BIO:

Naveen Beasley, a former Division 1 Tennis player for Cal Poly SLO, has quickly ascended the ranks in professional pickleball since his debut in 2021.

Achieving career-high rankings of 23 in PPA singles and 21 in APP singles, along with top 50 standings in doubles, Naveen has distinguished himself as a formidable competitor on the court. His notable achievements include quarter finalist appearances in both APP and PPA tournaments, multiple victories over top-10 and top-5 ranked opponents, and being celebrated as a tournament seed "killer."

Off the court, Naveen Beasley's life is as dynamic and accomplished as his presence in the pickleball world. His notable tennis career began with rigorous training in Barcelona, where he not only honed his skills on the court but also became fluent in Spanish. Naveen's artistic talents parallel his athletic side; he is a skilled musician who plays guitar, drums, and piano. Naveen is the Director of Sales & Marketing for a Manufacturing Tech Company, where he applies the same strategic thinking and dedication that has marked his sports career.
