John Cangelosi pursued his education at Connecticut College, where he excelled as a two-sport collegiate athlete in tennis and ice hockey. He distinguished himself as a #2 singles player in tennis, serving as team captain during his senior year. Additionally, he showcased his talent on the ice hockey team as a starting forward, leading the team in scoring for two consecutive years. Following his college career, Cangelosi ventured into professional ice hockey in Germany, immediately making an impact by leading his team in scoring during his debut season. Notably, he has secured victories against six top 25 singles players, as per the DUPR rankings. Currently, he holds the position of Director of Pickleball in Sarasota, FL.
