ABOUT NICOLE

My name is Nicole Eugenio. I grew up in the Philippines and started playing tennis when I was 4 years old. I competed in juniors and continued playing through college for the University of the Philippines, where I played for five years. During my junior years, I was ranked among the top 5 in the Philippines for the 18 and under category. I moved to the United States to pursue my master's degree in sports management. In 2023, I discovered pickleball and quickly advanced to competing in 5.0 tournaments, where I racked up gold medals. In June 2023, I began playing professional pickleball and have consistently reached the quarterfinals, placing in the top 5 overall standings for both PPA and APP events in singles and women's doubles.
